The banner for the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival features a blue background with a decorative orange border. The text "NEW ORLEANS JAZZ & HERITAGE FESTIVAL" is prominently displayed in a stylized font, with "APRIL 25 - MAY 4, 2014" below it. To the right, it says "PRESENTED BY" followed by the Shell logo. Below the banner are three portraits of the festival's headliners: Christina Aguilera, Eric Clapton, and Bruce Springsteen.

History of New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival:

Mahalia Jackson, often called the greatest gospel singer, returned to her hometown to appear at the first New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival in April of 1970. While attending the Louisiana Heritage Fair in Congo Square (then known as Beauregard Square), she and Duke Ellington, who also appeared at the event, came upon the Eureka Brass Band leading a crowd of second-line revelers through the Festival grounds. George Wein, producer of the Festival, handed Ms. Jackson a microphone, she sang along with the band and joined the parade...and the spirit of Jazz Fest was born.
