FANS BEWARE! U2360° Tour fan club presale codes are already surfacing as unauthorized resales on websites. U2.COM Official Fan Club moderator is very displeased to say the least and actively identifying these resales and canceling memberships which can result in possible deactivation of codes. Best practice is to join U2 official fan club and obtain your own presale ticket code.

OFC Commentary: The new album 'No Line On the Horizon' is a must to acquire in its entirety and OFC recommends the deluxe edition which includes an exclusive film download 'Linear', a digital magazine and collector's booklet. The digital inserts are reminiscent of the vintage LP albums and contain rare artistic photos, copies of the hand written notes and lyrics with Bono's mark ups reflecting the creativity process, interviews and commentary from the band!

U2 has reached new heights of magnificence, passion and glory with this album! Bono, The Edge, Adam and Larry, who are the band U2, indeed function in synergy and harmony as "one" which is reflected in the credits attributing U2, not the individual names, as writers of the music. U2 and 'No Line On the Horizon' is soul moving, riveting and inspiring to the senses in stellar proportions!

OFC fave songs from the album:

- 'No Line On the Horizon' - a masterpiece☐
- 'Get On Your Boots' - creative video, great lyrics, contemporary song with some hip hop-ish vocals
- 'Stand Up Comedy' - up beat R&B rock 'n roll flavor,☐ popular appeal
- 'Magnificent' - the title of this track describes it, reminiscent☐ of early U2 'War' and 'Joshua Tree'
- 'Breathe' - haunting cello opens this amazing track (no it's not a cover of Pink Floyd's classic from 'Dark Side of the Moon') and the chiming keyboards are mesmerizing on what is destined to become another U2 classic and OFC's personal fave; check out the hand written notes on the deluxe edition digital download.
- 'Unknown Caller' - opening track on Anton Corbijn's exclusive film 'Linear', indescribably beautiful, like a Monet painting!
