

Ziggy Marley Performs SunFest in West Palm Beach

Written by Sally Rosen and Rebecca Lattanzio - OFC Contributor

Ziggy Marley

photo by Sally Rosen - Official Fan Club, Inc.

Saturday, April 30, 2011. With the classic dreads and soothing island voice that can only be claimed by a Marley, Ziggy Marley got the crowd swaying today at Sunfest's Bank of America Stage. The reggae star sang hits from his solo career including "Love Is My Religion" and gave the audience a performance that would make even the most stressed of viewers feel at ease.

Marley did his music royalty father Bob Marley proud with renditions of "Get Up Stand Up" and "Is This Love?" The eight piece ensemble included Ziggy on guitar and lead vocals along with two additional guitars, bass, drums, percussions, brass and female vocals. One of the many highlights of the afternoon was "Black Cat" featuring a sizzling hot wah wah guitar solo.

Encores included "Look Who's Dancing" and wrapped up with Ziggy introducing new song "Forward To Love" from his forthcoming album expected to hit stores in June. Love was definitely in the air and Marley was the perfect mix in the Sunfest lineup. Ziggy Marley's next stop is in Memphis at the Beale St Music Festival.

Ziggy Marley Performs SunFest in West Palm Beach

Written by Sally Rosen and Rebecca Lattanzio - OFC Contributor

Click HERE for Ziggy Marley tour tickets on Ticketmaster

Click HERE for Ziggy Marley official website

April 30, 2011 Set List - West Palm Beach

Tomorrow People
Conscious Party
Be Free
Make Some Music
Roots Rock Reggae
A Lifetime
Justice
Get Up Stand Up

Let Jah Will Be Done
Black Cat
True To Myself
Is This Love
Love Is My Religion
Jammin'
Look Who's Dancing
Forward To Love

Ziggy Marley Performs SunFest in West Palm Beach

Written by Sally Rosen and Rebecca Lattanzio - OFC Contributor

