February 4, 2014 (nbcnews.com). Justin Bieber in hot water again, caught this time while in flight getting stoned on marijuana and trashing the flight crew.

The smoke was so thick, pilots were forced to wear gas masks to avoid the intoxicating fumes according to nbcnews.

This is the third incident in a month where Justin is making the headlines as a "bad boy." Bieber's track is going from media blitz to genuine concern for the pop star's state of mind and those who come in his path of destruction. Just last month, Bieber made headlines for egging his neighbors and arrested in Miami for DUI and reckless driving. Justin's DUI Trail is set for March 3 by a Miami-Dade County judge in Florida.

The nbc.com reports according to multiple law enforcement sources, the leased, luxurious Gulfstream IV on which the 19-year-old Canadian pop star, his father and an entourage of 10 friends traveled was so full of marijuana smoke that the pilots were forced to wear oxygen masks.

“The captain of the flight stated that he warned the passengers, including Bieber, on several occasions to stop smoking marijuana,” says the official report of the incident. “The captain also stated he needed to request that the passengers stop their harassing behavior toward the flight attendant and after several warnings asked the flight attendant to stay with him near the cockpit to avoid any further abuse.”

According to multiple sources, the attendant was forced to spend much of the flight near the pilots as the plane travelled from Canada to Teterboro, N.J.

“The flight attendant stated the passengers, including Bieber and his father, Jeremy Bieber,” stated the report, “were extremely abusive verbally and she would not work
