The Dave Matthews Band will launch its 2010 summer tour with a pair of Memorial Day Weekend shows in Connecticut and then stay out on the road through mid-September. The three-month-plus outing kicks off May 28 and 29 in Hartford, CT, and will hit 40 cities in all before wrapping Sept. 15 in St. Paul, MN.

Highlights include two July nights (7/16 and 7/17) at Citi Field in New York City, and an Aug. 23 appearance at Los Angeles' historic Hollywood Bowl. A variety of opening acts will join the tour at various stages, including Gov't Mule, Ben Harper, Brett Dennen, The Felice Brothers, Zac Brown Band and others.
