The three-time Grammy Award-winning and Rock and Roll Hall Of Fame inductee will kick off a month-long west coast tour starting November 25 in Phoenix and wrapping December 13 in Portland (see dates below). For ticket info, CLICK HERE

The late fall trek will take TIMOTHY and his bandmates to clubs offering an intimate vibe as they perform songs from his fifth solo effort EXPANDO (2009, Lost Highway/Universal) as well as gems by THE EAGLES and Poco. Written and produced by SCHMIT, EXPANDO presents a diverse mix of Americana, folk, country, rock and blues with an eclectic array of iconic artists including The Blind Boys of Alabama, Garth Hudson, Kid Rock, Graham Nash, Van Dyke Parks, Benmont Tench and Dwight Yoakam, among others. Highlights on the varied 11-song disc include "Parachute," "Downtime," "One More Mile," "White Boy From Sacramento," "Good Day" and the current single "Friday Night."
