

THE USED

photo by Sally Rosen - OFC Contributor

CA/UT- January 17, 2012 - The first single off the highly anticipated new album from The Used has been released today via iTunes. The song originally premiered on January 5th on KROQ to high praise and MTV Buzzworthy said "I Come Alive," "has plenty of The Used touchstones for fans, from dynamics to the impassioned screams, plus there's a dash more melodic hook alongside the off-kilter arrangements."

Click HERE to download "I Come Alive" on iTunes

With almost 3 Million albums sold worldwide, the band continues to create music that they stand behind 100%. "I Come Alive was the first song completed once we began writing this album. It sets up the record really well and I like how diverse and theatrical it is", says front man Bert McCracken.

THE USED Release First Single "I Come Alive" Off Upcoming Album VULNERABLE!

Last Updated Monday, 30 January 2012 19:10

VULNERABLE - The title of the album is Vulnerable, their