The SoCal band's highly anticipated new album, CABIN BY THE SEA, will be globally released June 19 on Five Seven Music and can be described as the "ultimate summer soundtrack." It features collaborations with tour mate Matisyahu, as well as Del the Funky Homosapien, Ky-Mani Marley and Rome.

"Summer's here and we are starting it off the best possible way I can imagine: by going on a cruise with 311. When we get home from the cruise, our album CABIN BY THE SEA will be released," said singer Jared "Dirty J" Watson. "We'll be heading out on our biggest summer tour yet with Matisyahu, who's also featured on the album. This summer's gonna be hot, fun, insane. We're planning tail-gate parties before the shows and after show parties at night. It's just going to be one big party. Hope to see you there - all love!"

THE DIRTY HEADS recently partnered with MTV to premiere the music video for the new album's lead single "Spread Too Thin," which can now be seen on the band's YouTube page. In just 4 weeks, the single is already top 15 on the Alternative radio charts and follows 2010's "Lay Me Down," which holds the record for most weeks at #1 on the Billboard "Alternative Songs" chart.
