March 1, 2013. The country world has been waiting nearly 40 years for an album between Emmylou Harris and Rodney Crowell. Now their prayers have been answered. Earlier this week, Harris and Crowell released their first-ever duets album, Old Yellow Moon.

While in New York for the All for the Hall concert benefiting the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, Radio.com caught up with Harris, and she filled us in on just why the duo made us wait so long.

“We were busy. We’re both road dogs,” she said. “We’re always out there touring or making a record, working a record.” Read more on RADIO.COM
