Eddie Money

January 16, 2014. OFC officialfanclub.net interviews classic rock great Eddie Money who will be performing at South Florida Fair 2014 on Thursday, January 23 8:00 PM in West Palm Beach. This video is a sneak peek preview of the exclusive interview with Money who shares his perspective on what's trending in Music News. As a singer and songwriter, Eddie chats with OFC on the subject of Robin Thicke copyright conflicts with Marvin Gaye's family and Bruce Springsteen's "Born To Run" political parody. The full interview of Eddie Money with photos from the upcoming concert will be coming soon!

Eddie Money has a substantial catalog of hits beginning with 70's smash “Baby Hold On” and “Two Tickets to Paradise.” Money followed the success of his debut album with a stream of Top 40 hits, as well as some of the era’s most creative videos for songs like “Think I’m in Love” and “Shakin.” In 1986, Money released Can’t Hold Back, which featured the classic, Grammy-Nominated duet with Ronnie Spector, “Take Me Home Tonight.”
