August 1, 2012. PSAs against texting while driving may soon get a new spokesperson: Peter Frampton.

The 62-year-old rocker documented a car accident he was involved in yesterday (July 31) afternoon via his Twitter account. According to Frampton, the driver behind him on Los Angeles' often-packed 101 Freeway was texting and rammed into his vehicle, which resulted in back and neck injuries for the singer – possibly even whiplash.
