Thursday, April 28, 2011. Recent Grammy winner Cee Lo Green brought down the house at SunFest's

Tire Kingdom Stage performing "Bright Lights, Bigger City" with his all female smokin' hot band. The pop/soul ensemble was a contemporary version reminiscent of Robert Palmer's pioneer video "Addicted to Love." And yes, Cee Lo who recently experienced a performance snafu at Coachella Festival due to tardiness was twenty minutes late!
